Question from Graeme Decarie regarding the Oct. 17, 2015 MCHS '60s Reunion:

Did they sing "We sing for Malcolm Campbell High" at the MCHS '60s Reunion?

They all sang – "The Scarlet and the Silver"
We sing for Malcolm Campbell High.
We raise our hearts and voices high.
We'll remember this song as we go along Life's highway by and by.
When these our school days fade far away,
We'll remember forever the day.
When we did our best to lead all the rest,
All for our Malcolm Campbell High.

MCHS '60s Phys Ed teacher Soryl (Shulman) Rosenberg, at the end of her presentation to the group, encouraged Mark and Cheryl to come up to the front of the room and sing the song. It was a memorable performance!

My husband, Don Houston, and I had a great time at the reunion and felt that the evening was well organized and altogether very enjoyable. The tables were decorated beautifully and the gift bags, buffet, and wine, all terrific. The Old Mill was a gorgeous venue for the event! The biggest representation appeared to be from Grade 11B (class of '63) and it was fun to see Jaan Pill, Brian Barton, Scott Munro, and Neil Bacon again, amongst other grads. There was only one classmate from my own class (11D - '63) -- Diane Fagg -- we sat together and it was fun to reconnect. We plan to see each other again. Another highlight for me was seeing my good friend, Anne Glommen (11B - '64) who lives in Victoria. We enjoyed Scott Munro's rendition of "Amazing Grace" on the bagpipes as a memorial to classmates who have since passed away. The DJ played hits from the era and we enjoyed dancing to those old tunes. Lynn (Hennebury) Legge was in charge of the "spot" dances, which were a great success and with great prizes. All in all, it was a fun evening and the organizing team should be congratulated for their hard work in putting this successful event together. And, Diana, you and Howard also deserve a round of applause for organizing the informative newsletters over the past year or so. Thanks again.

Come on now – tell us who you met/reconnected with or tell all about the Sunday Brunch and Walk
