

Jane's Walk in Long Branch Sunday, May 6, 2012

Marie Curtis Park to New Toronto along
Lake Promenade

Connie, Cyril, George, and Rene Durance and Florence Morrel, mouth of Etobicoke Creek, mid-1920s. Provenance: Barbara Durance. Photographer: Doris Durance.
© Durance family and Robert Lansdale

Our walk begins at 10:30 am, Sunday, May 6, 2012 at the east parking lot at Marie Curtis Park, south of the corner of Forty Second Street and Lake Shore Blvd. West. The walk ends at 12:00 pm on the grounds of the former Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital in New Toronto. You're most welcome to join us, even if you don't live in Long Branch! For details, please visit the Preserved Stories website at www.preservedstories.com. Jane's Walks are a legacy of the lifelong work of the writer and enthusiastic observer of urban life, Jane Jacobs.