Family Day Fun for February 18

There is no better way to spend a brisk February day than with those closest to you; family. With so much to do around the City I encourage you to make this a Family Day to remember and take advantage of what Toronto has to offer. Happy Family Day!

-Mark Grimes

City of Toronto's activities for a fun Family Day on February 18

The City of Toronto encourages residents to enjoy this year's Family Day on Monday, February 18 by making the most of the City's recreational activities, museums and other attractions.

City of Toronto municipal childcare centres, libraries and some community recreation centres will be closed on the Family Day holiday. The Toronto Zoo will be open. All City of Toronto emergency services and 24-hour operations will continue to be provided.

A great list of recreational activities follows in the newsletter below.

Spaces still available in City's March Break camps

The City of Toronto will offer high-quality camps for the March Break that provide a fun, safe and exciting experience for everyone at reasonable prices.

Parks, Forestry and Recreation camps are available for the week of March 11 to 15 for three to fifteen year olds. The camps offer a wide range of activities and adventures.

City of Toronto museums present day camps and drop-ins that run from March 9 to 17. More information about costs, locations and camp details are available at <http://www.toronto.ca/camps>.

Parks, Forestry and Recreation offers a variety of activity and specialty camps in neighbourhoods across the city. Residents are invited to sign up for ski and snowboarding camp at Earl Bales Park and Centennial Park. Artists can unleash their creativity at the Barbara Frum fine art camp. Participants can flip and tumble away their March Break at Northview Heights Secondary Schools' gymnastic camp. Other options include dance camp at Cedarbrook Community Centre, cheerleading camp at James S. Bell Community Centre, or swim camp at Mary McCormick Recreation Centre.

City of Toronto Family Day Activities

Outdoor skating

Family Day schedules for outdoor rinks and select indoor rinks vary and are available at <http://www.toronto.ca/parks/prd/skating> or by calling 311. CSA-approved hockey helmets are mandatory for children under six years of age, and are recommended for skaters of all ages. There is no charge for public skating at indoor or outdoor rinks.

Shinny hockey

Supervised shinny hockey is available free of charge for different ages and skill levels. Family Day schedules vary at each facility and some programs are gender-specific. Schedule details are available at <http://www.toronto.ca/parks/prd/skating/dropin/hockey> and by calling 311.

CSA-approved hockey helmets are mandatory for all shinny hockey participants and full face masks are also mandatory for all participants under the age of 19. The use of neck and mouth guards is strongly recommended, along with other protective equipment. Participants must have their own gloves and stick.

Skiing and snowboarding

Both of Toronto's ski and snowboard centres will be open for public skiing and snowboarding on Family Day. Centennial Ski and Snowboard Centre will be open from noon to 9:30 p.m. Earl Bales Ski and Snowboard Centre will be open from 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

The Centennial Park Ski and Snowboard Centre (416-394-8754) is located at 256 Centennial Park Rd., inside Centennial Park. The Earl Bales Ski and Snowboard Centre (416-395-7931) is located at 4169 Bathurst St., inside Earl Bales Park.

At Earl Bales, a $2.3-million investment is improving the customer experience. Participants are reaching the top of the hills faster this season with a new four-person chairlift. Indoors, rental equipment and lift passes are available for purchase all day.

The two ski and snowboard centres offer "Adults Pay, Kids Play" from 4 to 9:30 p.m. Adults pay $23.25, and up to two children under 18 years of age can ski or snowboard for free (rentals not included).

For the beginner aged eight and older, a two-hour group Introduction to Skiing and Snow Boarding lesson is available for $44. The lesson involves an instructor with a group of four to six participants. Each person receives a lift pass, rental equipment and a lesson with a certified instructor. Registration for the lesson can be made in advance by calling the preferred location to check on openings.

The use of a recognized ski or snowboard helmet for lessons is required and is strongly recommended for other participants.

For information about the Toronto Ski and Snowboard Centres, call 311 or visit <http://www.toronto.ca/parks/skiing>.

The Discovery Walks program is a series of 10 self-guided walks linking ravines, parks and neighbourhoods to showcase Toronto's outstanding natural features and cultural and historical attractions. Maps are available to download at <http://www.toronto.ca/parks/trails/discover.htm>.

Condo Consultation Please Join Us

The City of Toronto is conducting a consultation with condominium occupants.

We want to find out about issues and problems with the way people are living in Condos

The purpose of this consultation is to engage with condo residents, condo boards, businesses located in condo buildings, property managers, City staff and others to identify possible changes to City policies related to condo living in Toronto. We are already aware of some issues that have been raised, such as:

- Access to parks and dog parks;
- Recreational and community amenities;
- Parking , bike parking and visitor parking; and
- Childcare options in the neighborhood.

The consultation will focus on:

1. Identifying the issues that condo residents are currently experiencing;
2. Developing a set of ideas to help the City of Toronto address these issues.

We are hosting four public meetings where you can learn more about this study and share your thoughts. The meetings will begin with a brief overview presentation from the project team, followed by discussion to identify the issues and ideas to address them. The meeting time and venues are provided below. We will also be launching a survey in March 2013 – keep an eye on the project website (below) for updates.

January 2013

Dear Neighbour,

GO Transit is committed to keeping communities informed about our construction activities. As part of GO Transit's regular track maintenance program, we are planning to weld more than 200 track joints along the Lakeshore West corridor over the coming months. This work will take place between Port Credit GO Station and Dufferin St.

RESIDENT IMPACTS

In order to complete these improvements safely, tracks must be taken out of service. As a result, the work can only be carried out following the evening rush hour, when there is less train traffic. Construction work will remain within the area indicated on the map below; however, residents may experience noise from the welding/track work and construction equipment.

SCHEDULE

The work has begun at Port Credit GO Station (30 Queen St. E., Mississauga) and will move eastward along the Lakeshore West corridor to Dufferin St. This work is expected to be completed by the end of April 2013. To help minimize disruptions, the work will be completed in cycles. There will be eight days of construction (Wednesday to Wednesday between the hours of 8 p.m. and 8 a.m.) followed by six days off (Thursday to Tuesday).

GO Transit recognizes that this work can be disruptive to our neighbours. We apologize for this inconvenience and are doing our best to carry out this essential construction with the least disruption possible.

We apologize for the inconvenience and thank you for your patience as we complete these improvements.
