Our music maven is Gina Cayer aka Davis class 68. You have already seen some of her musical input on the various Facebook sites for MCHS. Our Gina has been on the search for a DJ. We hear she may have landed this already. Watch here for updates from Gina.

It has come to our attention that Gina is quite the aficionado on doing the Locomotion and yes the Mashed potatoes. Is anyone willing to put out a challenge to her? And in case you want to practise go to these two links.....

Howard's wife Diane was quite the Mashed Potatoes girl in 64.

We are sensing a serious dance off in the making.

See you on the dance floor - guys and dolls.....

Answers to the very difficult MCHS Quiz in Newsletter #12

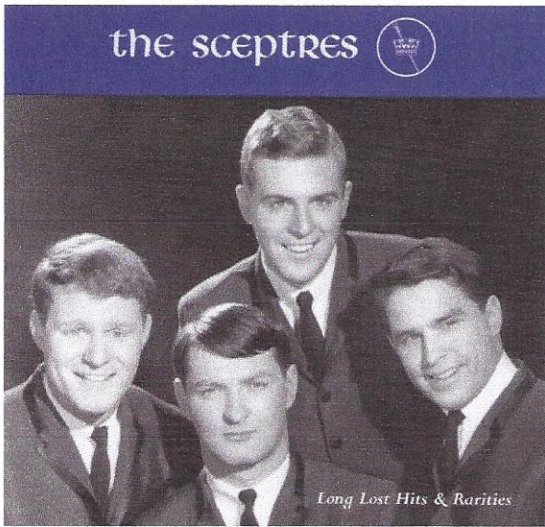

1. Jacki Ralph (Class of '62) was a member of the singing Group known as "The Bells." Interestingly, their hit, "Fly Little White Dove Fly" was written by Marty Butler (see Question #3) and his partner Bob Bilyk.

2. The name of the closest train station to MCHS that took students back and forth to the west island was Monkland (now defunct).

3. The 3 MCHS alumni associated with the band, "The Sceptres" were Tim Hewlings (Class of '63), Bill Ott (Class of '62), and Marty Butler (Class of '62). The accompanying photo is from the cover of a new CD featuring The Sceptres' greatest hits that was produced in 2014 by Tim Hewlings, one of the band's original members.

4. The name of the '62 MCHS alumnus who had a role in the Robert Altman movie, "Nashville" in 1975 was Allan Nicholls.

5. The '62 grad was responsible for the Scottish themed artwork in the 1961-62 Yearbook was Graham Wragg.

6. The alumnus who won 1st prize in the art contest in the 1962-63 Yearbook was Jaan Pill with his painting entitled "Jungle Morning."

7. "How low can you go?" was a phrase associated with a dance called "The Limbo". Participants had to bend backwards and manipulate their bodies under a horizontal bar that was gradually lowered on each attempt.

8. Keith Henderson is the 1962 MCHS alumnus who, from 1994 until 2012, was leader of the Quebec political party known as the Equality Party.

9. The '62 alumnus who won the Photo Contest in the 1961-62 Yearbook was Charles Tsiang.

10. Mr. Claude Lafon is the French teacher rumoured to have been in the French Foreign Legion.

What fun trying to pull these 10 facts from the old memory bank.

How did you make out?

Brag a bit - let us know how you did.

A very special _____ to Cheryl (Casino) Houston 11D – 63 for putting the quiz together and providing the answers with pictures.
