Dear Classmates,

Who remembers the T.A.M.I. movie – 1964?

The white teenagers of the Americas were to meet
JAMES BROWN, for the first time. Not the last.

By the way can anyone name at least 10 acts that appeared that day?

Go to this link and meet him again.

The next iconic musical piece is to evoke HELP for Jaan.

As George Harrison asks you.....HELP!

Jaan has posted requests for HELP.

Now surely some grad out there can do this stuff.

So come on, join in on the FUN and lend a hand.....

Jaan had asked:

This post seeks to gather together some of the volunteer projects that MCHS Alumni are involved in, or have suggested, in connection with the MCHS 2015 Reunion. Posted on Facebook – July 21, 2015 by Jaan Pill

Skype video session

Charles Tsiang has suggested, in a November 19, 2014 message, that it might be a great idea to have “a mega Skype video session for 15 minutes where participants [who are not actually attending the Reunion] say “hello.”

The comment from Charles has prompted us to starting thinking about this concept.

He has added: “We will be pleased to dialog on innovative ideas of broadening the concept of participation. Need some alumni with tech experience or business event planning backgrounds who can help.”

Online video conferencing

Do you have an interest in online video conversations, during the Reunion?

Can you help us to set up online video conferencing for the MCHS 2015 Reunion?

That is, can you help set up an arrangement whereby people, who are not at the Reunion, can take part in some way via Skype or Google + (or other video conferencing platforms)?

If the answer is yes, to any of these questions, please contact Jaan Pill at jpill@preservedstories.com

If we can get some help, we'll set it up.

Below is our continuing:
