

Rivers Rising

Rivers Rising explores Lost River watershed communities for stories about food, water, history and culture. Come to our events to hear and share stories about your local community and to take part in eco-friendly neighbourhood projects.

Why should you become a Rivers Rising Ambassador?

As a Rivers Rising Ambassador, you will gain valuable skills by helping us discover local stories, leading neighbourhood walks, inspiring eco-friendly projects, and getting the chance to be part of our future ecotourism social enterprise. You will also be given $200 for completing our hands-on training in:

- Ⓞ local history & environment
- Ⓞ key elements of digital storytelling
- Ⓞ Diversity & Inclusion
- Ⓞ engaging with the public
- Ⓞ leading walking tours

(8 training sessions in addition to attending 2 walks, & creating & leading new walks)

Who Should Apply?

We are looking for eager, creative, motivated people. You should apply if you:

- Ⓞ are curious about local cultures, history & your natural environment
- Ⓞ like to share what you learn with others
- Ⓞ enjoy working with people of different ages and backgrounds
- Ⓞ are looking for a way to become more involved in your community
- Ⓞ are available for the training and can commit to attend all of the sessions
- Ⓞ can communicate well in English (additional languages are an asset)
- Ⓞ are at least 18 years old

Discover your community, connect with your neighbours, and make a big difference!

To find out more contact: paula@torontogreen.ca

www.torontogreen.ca

Generously funded by:

An agency of the Government of Ontario
Un organisme du gouvernement de l'Ontario